Tips for pronouncing Spanish

More good news about Spanish pronunciation is that the consonants obey the rules too, although people do speak with different accents, depending on their region and background.

c's and z's

c + e = th

cero, once

c + i = th

cinco, gracias

z + a, o, u = th

zapato, corazón, azul

c + a = ka

casa, catorce

c + o = ko

cómo, color

c + u = ku

Cuba, cubano

¡Jajaja!

j's and g's

J, as in jardines (gardens), is a harder, stronger version of the English 'h'. G, when followed by e and i, sounds exactly the same as j. Otherwise, it is pronounced as the English 'g' in go.

ll's

The double ll, as in calle, is another characteristic Spanish sound. In most parts of Spain it's like the 'lli' in the English million.

h's

The h is silent in Spanish, so you won't be blowing any candles out when you pronounce words that begin with this letter. Best to imagine it's not there and pronounce the second letter in the word.

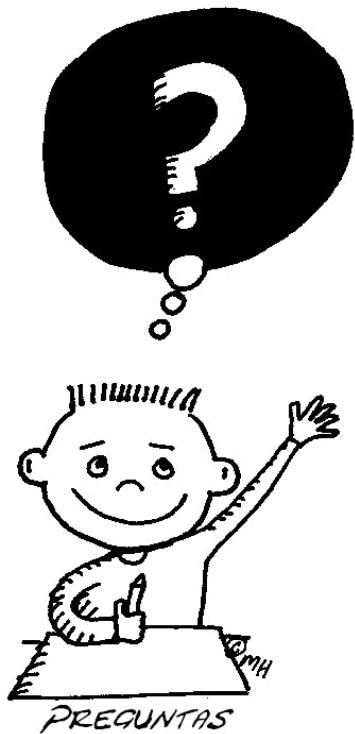

hablo, helado, ¡hola!, huevo

Try saying these out loud:

amarillo	octubre	familia	catorce	garaje

GUSTAR and expressing likes and dislikes

Gustar really means ‘to be pleasing to’. Use ‘gusta’ with singular nouns and ‘gustan’ with plural nouns. You need to use the correct indirect pronoun too to show who likes what.

Expressing likes and dislikes – 3 impersonal verbs

	GUSTAR – to like	ENCANTAR – to love	INTERESAR – to interest
me (to me)	gusta(n)	encanta(n)	interesa(n)
te (to you)
le (to him/her)
le (to you – formal, 1 pers)
nos (to us)
os (to you – fam.pl)
les (to them)
les (to you – formal, pl)

There are other verbs that work in this way too. The most important ones are:

encantar	to love
interesar	to interest
chiflar	to adore/love

NB: You always need to use the definite article (the) with GUSTAR to say you like / don't like something.

E.g. Me gusta la pizza = I like pizza.

¿Te gusta(n)?

Me da igual

A Write the words for the foods in the right part of the venn diagram for you, depending on what you like / dislike. Use the middle for anything you don't mind!

The present tense (-AR regular verbs)

English verbs in their INFINITIVE form have the word ‘to’ in front. Spanish infinitives often end in –AR. Here are some examples:

to speak	hablar
to swim	nadar
to practise	practicar
to sing	cantar
to dine / have dinner	cenar

To say who is doing the action of the verb, in English we add a pronoun to the front, and for he / she / it we add an –s to the verb. In Spanish, we add a different ending for each person.

Look at the verb DESAYUNAR (to breakfast / to have breakfast)::

I breakfast	desayuno
You (sg) breakfast	desayunas
He / She / It breakfasts	desayuna
We breakfast	desayunamos
You (pl) breakfast	desayunáis
They breakfast	desayunan

	- AR verb endings
I	- o
You (sg)	- as
He / She / It	- a
We	- amos
You (pl)	- áis
They	- an
